

Advancing Measurement of the Quality of HIP implementation: Immediate Post-partum and Post-abortion Family Planning
July 16, 9:00-11:30am EDT

Time (EDT)	Topic
9:00-9:01	Welcome
9:01-9:05	Opening remarks Dr. Salma Ibrahim Anas, the Special Advisor to Nigeria's President on Health
9:05-9:20	Setting the Stage Dr. Jason Bremner, Senior Director, Data and Measurement, FP2030
9:20-9:30	Overview of HIP Key Implementation Components Professor Fredrick Makumbi, Makerere University School of Public Health
9:30-10:15	Two tools for measuring quality of HIP implementation Dr. Susan Pietrzyk, Data for Impact (D4I) Partner Lead at ICF presenting D4I Self-assessment checklist Dr. Aurélie Brunie, Deputy Director for Research, R4S project presenting R4S Point of Service Surveys
10:15-10:45	Panel: Perspectives on measuring quality of HIP implementation Dr. Valerie Zombre Sanon, Ministry of Health, Burkina Faso Dr. Charles Olaro, Ministry of Health, Uganda Mr. Lawrence Anyanwu, Federal Ministry of Health, Nigeria Dr. Alda Govo, Ministry of Health, Mozambique Moderator: Dr. Gathari Ndirangu Gichuhi, Global FP Director, Jhpiego
10:45-11:20	Small Group Discussion Participants will be randomly assigned to one of the groups listed below. Discussion will focus on getting feedback on how the tools

	would be used to generate meaningful information to improve HIP implementation. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Self-assessment checklist2) Point of Service Surveys3) Needs and experiences measuring other dimensions of quality e.g., client-provider interactions, outcomes
11:20-11:25	Rapid report out
11:25-11:30	Closing remarks Dr. Erica Lokken, Senior Program Officer, Data, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

